

LOCAL PEOPLE:

Exploring Identity, Economy, and Place

Syracuse University Graduate History Conference • March 20th, 2015

Registration 8.30am – 9.15am at Tolley 300 (Humanities Center Library)

Welcome & Opening Remarks 8.45am – 9.00am at Tolley 300 (Humanities Center Library)

Reception 5.00pm – 6.00pm at Maxwell 204

FIRST SESSION
9.15am – 10.45am

- Representation and Activism: A Local Study
Eggers 151
- Negotiating Art, Class, and the Local Body
Tolley 304

SECOND SESSION
11.00am – 12.30pm

- American Colonial Wars and their Local Legacies
Eggers 151
- Making and Remembering Urban Localities
Tolley 304

KEYNOTE

2.00pm – 3.00pm

Dr. Catherine Tumber
(Northeastern University)
“Big Questions about Small Cities in the Mega Age”
Maxwell 204

THIRD SESSION

3.15pm – 4.45pm

- Cities: Sacred, Secular, Cyber – Spatial Analysis of Religion(s) in the Urban Eggers 151
- Provocateur: Winslow Homer's Civil War Illustrations Tolley 304

historvfp.svr.edu

Sponsored by: Syracuse University Department of History | Syracuse University Department of Sociology | The Graduate School | GSO